Kaleidoscope-Pro Only Grant Option

Objective:

Offer a grant program to support the advancement of wildlife research, habitat monitoring, and environmental conservation. This quarterly grant program provides scientists with bioacoustics research tools to further their study of bats, birds, amphibians, and other vocal wildlife. Here are some highlights:

- Streamlined application for those wanting Kaleidoscope Pro only
- Unlimited Kaleidoscope Pro licenses for eligible applicants
- One-year, annual memberships awarded quarterly
- Applicants may reapply

Elegibility:

Grant recipients must be associated with a charitable, educational, NGOs, or other tax-exempt organization. Consideration will be given to projects that make significant and novel use of wildlife vocalization recordings for data collection and/or analysis.

Benefits:

Wildlife Acoustics may award up to $12,000 worth of eligible products to selected grant recipients worldwide every quarter. Individual applicants may request products and software licenses totaling up to $4,000 quarterly. We will highlight grant recipients and their projects on our website and social media platforms.

HMGCC Co-Creation Challenge: Novel AI Pen Testing

Objective:

HMGCC is co-ordinating a Co-Creation challenge to further the security community's understanding of AI or any novel technologies that have the capacity to penetration test secure IT environments. Scripting based technologies are excluded as these are mature and available as commercial products.

This Co-Creation challenge aims to evaluate the readiness of the technologies, their capabilities and integration needs. This will be achieved by evaluating ease of adaption and integration.

Elegibility:

This challenge is open to sole innovators, industry, academic and research organisations of all types and sizes. There is no requirement for security clearances.

Solution providers or direct collaboration from countries listed by the UK government under trade sanctions and/or arms embargoes, are not eligible for HMGCC Co-Creation challenges.

Indicative budget:

Budget per single organisation, up to £60,000 per workstream (plus call-off). Project duration 12 weeks.

Apply for funding – EOCA

Objective:

EOCA funds projects which benefit biodiversity in a wild landscape. Our definition of 'landscape' includes marine environments, and a broad range of wild, non-urban spaces. Projects must conserve, protect, enhance, restore, and/or reconnect habitats within a given landscape that are particularly important for the biodiversity there.

Project applications MUST:

- protect a threatened species or habitat;
- have a link to the outdoor enthusiast (see Funding Criteria for full details); AND
- involve hands-on practical conservation work.

Eligibility:

Non profit organisations can apply to EOCA for grants in any country around the world except North America (US and Canada – where the Conservation Alliance provides funding for conservation efforts from the North American outdoor industry).

Benefits:

All grants awarded are for the time period of up to two years, for a maximum budget of €30,000, and if you are successful, the grant will be given in 3 stages over the course of the time period.

Russell E. Train Fellowships

Objective:

WWF's Russell E. Train Education for Nature Program (EFN) invites applications from aspiring and experienced researchers, practitioners, and leaders to pursue graduate-level studies (master's and PhD) geared towards research that cultivates a better understanding of the place-based nature of food systems and transformation. There is substantial evidence at the global scale of the urgent need for food system transformation, but less attention has been paid to how transformations toward more healthy and sustainable food systems might play out at the national level.

The aim of the Food Systems Fellowship is to support outstanding master's or doctoral students to develop evidence-based, innovative, and interdisciplinary research on food systems at the national level to catalyze the process of generating an improved understanding of the country-specific nature of food systems and transformation.

Elegibility:

The fellowship is open to nationals of eligible countries within WWF-US priority areas who are already enrolled/are interested in enrolling in a master's or PhD program. Eligible countries include: Belize, Bhutan, Bolivia, Brazil, Cambodia, Cameroon, Central African Republic, Chile, Colombia, etc.

Indicative budget:

Applicants may apply for up to two years of funding and request up to $30,000 per year. The amount of funding approved will vary.

Funding Bold Ideas for Youth Mental Health in 12 countries

Objective:

At Transition to Scale (TTS), Being will support promising innovations that have achieved proof-of-concept or demonstrated initial positive results of the innovation and have significant potential to achieve sustainable impact at scale or as it reaches more people. Our goal is to support innovators to Transition to Scale through the 'missing middle'. They're funding bold prevention and promotion ideas that address the early drivers of mental health and wellbeing for the most underserved young people aged 10- to 24 in: Colombia, Ecuador, Ghana, India, Indonesia, Morocco, Pakistan, Romania, Senegal, Sierra Leone, Tanzania, and Vietnam.

Eligibility:

All legally incorporated (or the equivalent) organizations based in any country can apply for funding through this RFP. Please note: Only organizations implementing their project in the 12 priority countries.

Indicative budget

TTS funding between $300,000 CAD and $1,500,000 CAD over 12-48 months will be awarded to support organizations that align with country-specific priorities along their scaling journey to help catalyze their sustainability and impact.
